1. History

Gloria Botha School was founded in 1990 in the Helderberg region by a group of dedicated parents. The school initially operated as a satellite of the Cheré Botha Centre in Bellville. The centre was established by Mrs. Gloria Botha after the birth of her daughter, Cheré, who was born with Down syndrome. Although Cheré passed away at a young age, the centre continued to grow and became the parent organization for several related schools in the Boland and surrounding areas.

In 2004, Gloria Botha School was registered with the Western Cape Department of Education as an independent school (Registration Number: 0111007560) and has since received a limited subsidy. With the support of the Richard Stuttaford Trust, Pinelands and Garden Cities, the school moved to its current premises in Somerset West in 2009. The school is recognized by the Department of Social Development as an NPO (033-432-NPO) and accredited by SARS as a Public Benefit Organization with Section 18A status (Registration Number: 18/11/13/4279), allowing South African donors to claim tax deductions for donations.
